

CONSENT FOR ELECTRONIC ACCESS TO STATEMENTS

Passport[™] and Archive[™] are two exciting new on-line products that RCG is pleased to offer to its customers. With Passport[™], RCG customers can view trades, positions and account balances, marked to the market with real-time prices. For the electronic trader, that means trades and positions will be displayed within minutes of trade execution. For the open outcry trader, trades and positions will be displayed within minutes of keypunching on the trading floor.

With Archive[™], customers can view their current daily statement and access our database of historical daily and monthly statements. Customers love the convenience of easy access to past statements, particularly around tax time.
